BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

To Invites attention to f.o. No. 2076-9 § 14-11-1912 extending the benefit of State Insurance to the temporary employees of the P.W.D. & requests whether under the said order the temporary employees of the State Ry construction Deptt may also be admitted to insurance.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The principle on which temporary employees are kept out from insurance is that of first Sanction but to an arrangement primarily in many cases have eventually to be realis in case increase of salary & the cost of working may increase. H 2876-9 & 14-11. B 25-11-2

2) In para 3 of the same G.O the standing of the temporary employees of the P.W.D was mentioned & found not to be labouring under the disability enumerated above & therefore the order in question wound up by defining that such of the temporary employees ~~recruited~~ of the P.W.D as could be certified that they would be kept on for a period of 5 years or more are eligible for insurance.

3) The question therefore lies in the application of the principle - whether the temporary employees of the State Ry construction Deptt are likely to be kept on for a period of 5 years or more. Since the present application is based on the order of the 14th Govt it may be taken for granted that these employees are ~~identical~~ similar to the other temporary employees of the P.W.D & hence the insurance fund will not suffer by the admission of these men fold.

6. Unlike the P.W.D. proper which is a permanent department & continues permanently though a portion of the establishment therein may continue on a temporary footing for long periods, the R^y Construction Dep^t is a purely temporary department & will cease to exist as soon as the railways taken up for construction & others which may be taken up in the near future are completed. There is not more probability of this department continuing longer than five years for a sufficient long period and it would not be possible to say of most of the Employees therein that they will continue in the Service of Govt for at least five years.

7. Under these circumstances the position of the employees of this Department is far different from that of the officials of the P.W.D. and they cannot therefore be admitted to State Life Insurance.

8. This would of course not affect the majority of the Employees who would be holding permanent appointments in the P.W.D. or other Departments of Govt and are pensionable
